^{*} Prior to the 1st April, 1908, all passengers on board oversea vessels were, at the first port of call, counted as "arrivals," and all abandoned on the date mentioned, and a new method substituted in its stead, under which only passengers who land at an Australian method unduly augmented Australian migration figures by the inclusion of through passengers who did not join or leave vessels as departures.

Commonwealth of Australia during each Quarter of the year 1908 distinguishing over 12 years of age.
